

Christopher C. Davis

Chairman, Davis Selected Advisers, L.P.

Christopher Davis has been a Director of The Coca-Cola Company since April 2018. Mr. Davis is Chairman of Davis Selected Advisers, L.P., an independent investment management firm founded in 1969 that oversees approximately $20 billion of client assets for both individuals and institutions worldwide.

Mr. Davis joined Davis Selected Advisers in 1989 as a financial analyst. In 1995, he became a portfolio manager of the firm's flagship funds, Davis New York Venture Fund and Selected American Shares. Prior to joining Davis Selected Advisers, he served as a research analyst at Tanaka Capital Management and as an accountant at State Street Bank and Trust Company. Mr. Davis received a master's degree with honors from the University of St. Andrews in Scotland. Mr. Davis holds investment company directorships in Selected Funds, Davis Funds and Clipper Funds Trust, three fund complexes which are advised by Davis Selected Advisers and other entities controlled by Davis Selected Advisers. He is also a director at Graham Holdings Company and Berkshire Hathaway Inc.

